Lexington High School, hear thy children singing;
Songs to thy memory dear,
Love and trust now bringing;
Hearts of devotion, thanks and praise outpouring, ever adoring.

Hail! Senior High School, bind our hearts together;
Thanks for thy service,
Fair or stormy weather.
Loyal we pledge the faith, and the love enduring, ever enduring.

Hopes for thy future, aims and efforts blending;
Thy home and favor
Inspiration sending;
Thy radiant spirit shining ever near us: Hail! Alma Mater, dear.

Each year the LEXICON staff, on behalf of the student body, welcomes this opportunity to acknowledge the unceasing work of two well-known men in our school system.

Mr. L. E. Andrews has administered his duties as superintendent of the city efficiently for twenty-two years. His job includes nearly every phase of activity in each of Lexington's schools. The ability to make wise decisions is one of his attributes which has accounted for the smooth operation of these schools. However, in spite of the number of his responsibilities, he is never too busy to be friendly to any student. This year was Mr. Andrews' first in his office in the new administration building. This brings him closer to Lexington Senior High School, and we are always glad to have him visit this side of the campus.

As principal for twelve years Mr. C. E. Wike has earned the love and respect of all former and present students of Lexington Senior High School. Through his efforts each new school year is more successful than the last. His thoughtful study of the needs of our school and its students has brought about constant improvements in every part of the high school program. The school is run democratically with the students participating to a great degree. His concern for and willingness to talk with the individual student has endeared him to us all.

Also, we would like to thank the members of the faculty of Lexington Senior High for their dedication to the development of each student into a happy and useful member of society.

Juniors

This year, as always, the Junior Class has been one of the busiest and hardest working classes in school. Led by President Rhonda Morgan the class has sponsored many events in order to raise money with which to entertain the Senior Class with a dance and banquet in the spring of the year. The other Junior Class officers are Vice-President, Dale Allred; Secretary, Danny McGinn; and Treasurer, Kitty Bernhardt.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Government

The organization most important to the school is the Student Government. It is composed of the Executive Officers, Class Representatives, and the House of Representatives. Each of these branches has a specific job to do and does it extremely well.

Many outstanding projects are sponsored by the Student Government. Some of the most important of these are the Homecoming festivities, College Day, Parent-Player Night, and Citizen of the Month.

Under the leadership of Mr. Frank Clark, the advisor, the Student Council sponsors many activities to encourage and raise the school spirit.

LINDA LOHR, President

And yet God made His birth well known
By sending down a light;
He made to shine His richest star
For all the world that night.
The world did not all love the King
Nor realize the fact
That in this tiny humble Babe
No peace or love was lacked.
N'er has the world seen One before
Who such great works has done
Nor shall the world another see
For this was God's own Son.

SUE'S DILEMMA

—FRED LOPP

It was Christmas Eve. Sue was waiting in the living room for Bob to come over. As she waited, she recalled the experiences of the past week. What a difficult time she had had deciding on just the right gift for him.

Bob had a good job, and any time he wanted anything he bought it for himself. It seemed he had everything any young man could want.

On Monday she had noticed that his topcoat was becoming slightly frayed about the cuffs. Early Tuesday morning she hurried to Slick's and purchased a beautiful coat for him. That night he arrived to take her to the movies wearing one exactly like the one she had chosen.

Wednesday, when she returned the coat, she

Sue lay awake for a long time that night puzzling over her problem. At last an idea came to her, and she dropped off to sleep. Early Friday morning she took the radio and her camera and hurried to the orphanage.

Now the ringing of the door bell disturbed her recollections. Here was Bob, and she was ready for him. Bob opened the large, flat package and gazed at it in surprise. It was an enlarged color photograph of a very happy youngster holding a red transistor radio.

After he had heard the whole story, Bob said, "This is the nicest present I ever received. It's a picture of true Christmas joy. That gift to the child was the first but far from the last which made a wealthy man realize, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

THE SLEEPY SPY

—CRAIG REDWINE

It was Christmas Eve, and my big chance had finally come. I had waited a long time, twelve months to be exact, to get a look at him. Now, as I sat silently behind the chair, I chuckled as I thought of the hours of planning that had gone into my scheme. I knew I would see him; because if I didn't the other kids would have been right. They said he wasn't real, but yet, somehow, I couldn't believe them. Surely there was a real Santa Claus. There had to be.

From behind the chair, I had a good view of the fireplace and the empty stockings. The tree was to the right of the fireplace, and it's colorful lights gave the room a gay effect. The longer I looked at the tree, the sleepier I got. I wondered if maybe Santa had forgotten, but I realized he was busy with everyone else. Several times I caught myself but each time I man- up again.

heard a noise on the from the fireplace d. He was just as I d be. He had a long and he was jolly and ed further behind the chair to make sure he didn't see me. When he had finished, he disappeared up the chimney. As he rode away, I heard the familiar words, "Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night."

I opened my eyes; (no, wait!) had they been closed? I couldn't remember. They fell upon the angel. Only this time something was different. Her eyes didn't meet mine, but they moved across the room. The stockings were full, and the tree was surrounded by beautifully wrapped gifts. Where had I been? Then, I remembered, or did I? Had I dreamed Santa had come, or had he really paid us a visit.

I realized it all must have been a dream, but now it didn't matter. To me, Santa Claus had come and would continue coming the rest of my life.

Comment Allez-Vous?

Being one of the largest clubs in school, the French Club undertakes many worthwhile projects during the year. Under the capable leadership of Miss Imogene Riddick, they produce an annual French play. This play is of great benefit to the entire community in that it supplies a taste of French life right here at home in the South.

Culture Vultures

The Literary Club is one of the most prominent clubs in school. Its members are chosen on the basis of their ability in music, art, writing, or other creative arts. This organization also is very active. They attend a number of plays during the year at various spots. Under the superior leadership of Mrs. Roland Gibson, the Literary Club will continue to prosper and grow in the future.

Future Creators of Tomorrow's Youth

The Future Teachers of America plays an active part in numerous school activities. These willing future teachers are always eager to take over classes when teachers are indisposed. Several members always attend the State F.T.A. Convention, which was held at Wake Forest this year. In this organization, members learn some of the opportunities and problems to be faced in their prospective vocation.

Letters on Our Sweaters

This is one of the newest organizations in Senior High. Its purpose is to uphold the highest athletic standards and to create a closer bond of fellowship among the sports-minded students. The Monogram Club enthusiastically sells programs for all the games. All members receive a standard Monogram jacket, and many of them sport white sweaters with the letters they have earned.

Striving Christian

One of the most active school organizations is the Tri-Hi-Y. The girls of this club are responsible for the building of the Queen's Float at Homecoming and the annual coronation of the King and Queen of Lexington Senior High. In October the Tri-Hi-Y, along with the Y.M.C.A., was hostess for the North and South Carolina Tri-Hi-Y Convention. Members kept their prominent guests in their homes during this memorable week end.

Uphold Ideals

One of the most active and oldest boys' clubs in school, which is the brother organization of the Tri-Hi-Y, is the Hi-Y. Its membership is made up of junior, senior, and sophomore boys. They join their sister club in monthly dinner meetings at the Y.M.C.A.

The officers of the Girls' Chorus are: (left to right) Clare Craver, President; and Judy Beck, Secretary and Treasurer. Absent when the picture was made was Pam Craver, Vice-President.

The Glee Club, consisting entirely of girls, is one of the most enthusiastic groups in school; and as a result, it has produced a very good chorus. Occasionally they participate in radio programs and appear before civic clubs here in Lexington. The training and experience gained in the Glee Club will always be of great value to each member.

Songsters

The Lexington Senior High Glee Club, composed of approximately fifty members, is one of the most entertaining organizations in school. It is under the capable leadership of Mrs. E. E. Witherspoon. They present a variety of assembly programs throughout the year, and they participate in the annual Christmas Candlelight Service. The Baccalaureate Service and the Commencement Service would not be complete without the music of the Glee Club.

Unlocking the Door to Service

The Key Club is a service club sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. The chief aim of the club is the building of a better community and school. It is a club that is very active and useful to the school. It is composed of outstanding and deserving boys. Their advisor is Mr. Carroll Bowen.

Hold High the Torch

The National Honor Society was established in Lexington Senior High in 1934 and has been very active ever since that time. In order to become a member, students must excel in character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Senior members must maintain an average of ninety-three or more; and Juniors, an average of ninety-five. Induction of members takes place at a very impressive ceremony in assembly with the pinning of red carnations on new members. The Honor Society takes part in many outstanding school activities.

Beta Club

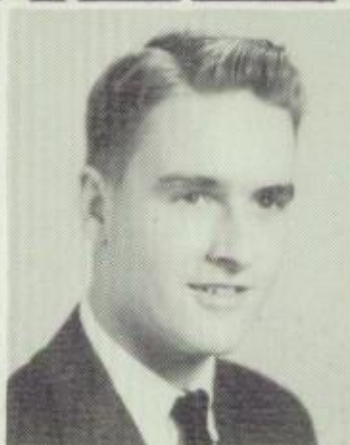

The Beta Club is a national student service club. Members must have an average of eighty-seven or more. The members are chosen by Mrs. Harold Bowen, sponsor, and the president. The purposes of the club are to reward merit and achievement among the students, to build character and cultivate a serious desire for the higher things of life. These things make the Beta Club an outstanding club in school. The officers are: Dottie Myers, President; Gail Lanier, Vice-President; Mildred Davis, Secretary-Treasurer; Ronda Hill, Program Chairman.

Junior Civitan

The Junior Civitan Club is a service club sponsored by the Lexington Civitan Club. The club has many worthwhile objectives. A few of these are to stand for good citizenship in the home, school, and community; to co-operate with the leaders; to serve the community; to develop experience in living and working together; to practice the Golden Rule; and to prepare its members for leadership. The officers of the Junior Civitan Club are (top row) Gail Lanier, President; Herbie Davis, Vice-President; Eddie Waitman, Secretary; and Clark Crutchfield, Treasurer. The club is sponsored by Mr. Shore.

Bus Drivers

Library Club

Science Club

The Science Club is a newly organized club in school. It is well on its way to becoming one of the most prominent clubs in our school. This has been possible because of the enthusiasm and willing work of the club's fine members and that of their advisors—Miss Charlotte Matthews, Mrs. Joe Tate, and Mrs. J. Roy Clifford.

The club's main purpose is to encourage its members to become more interested in science and its benefits.

Diversified Occupations

The Diversified Occupation Club is one of the most useful clubs in school, even though it is very young. The club is composed of students taking the D.O. course. This course offers the students various jobs, which helps them to plan for the future and teaches them to be good citizens. As most of the D.O. students do not plan to attend college, the course and club help to prepare them to be the future businessmen and women of tomorrow. Under the capable leadership of Mr. T. C. Shore, the D.O. Club will continue to prosper and produce opportunities in vocations.

Distributive Education

The Distributive Education Club is designed to help students learn civic obligations and to be able to accept responsibilities which will strengthen the school's work program. Bonnie Berrier (center) is showing Patricia Hartley (left) and Tommy Bell (right) the two-star Sears Roebuck Foundation Award. This award is given in recognition of the club's achievements according to prescribed standards. It is based on scholarship, attendance, projects, and participation in a variety of activities.

Students in the Distributive Education Program work part time in the local businesses in order to gain practical experience and to use the skills and technical training they receive in school. Mr. Earl Ketner, Manager of Winn-Dixie, is showing student Nancy Robertson some of the details in operating her cash register. Every student graduating from the D.E. program will have all the required courses for graduation plus the basic fundamentals of business training and at least one year of part time work experience. By graduation time they are well started in a business career.

D.E. Club members pictured at left first row seated: Danny Everhart, Associate President; Nancy Robertson, Treasurer; Floye Ann Leonard, Secretary; Bonnie Berrier, Editor Promotion Manager; William Anderson, Photographer; Alice Cross; and Wilma Snider. Over the past ten years the Lexington Senior High Band, under the direction of Mr. Belford Wagner, has become one of the most outstanding high school bands in North Carolina. The band members report for intensive rehearsals on the first of August to sharpen their marching for three months of football halftimes. Their prowess in this field has been twice demonstrated at the Southeastern Band Festival in Bristol, Tennessee-Virginia, where they have been rated Division I by some of the nation's foremost band authorities. They are also invited to many out-of-town parades each year. The annual Christmas concert opens the concert season which includes a Spring concert and performances for various civic organizations and school assembly programs. Last year the band was privileged to spend a week at Daytona Beach, Florida, where they presented a concert in the world's largest band shell. The band also enters the District and State contests every year and has earned high ratings in the past several years. First Chair of America, national yearbook honoring outstanding bands, orchestras, and choruses, has featured the Lexington Senior High Band several times. As a reward for their hard work and high ratings the band members' parents treat them to a Christmas dance and a banquet at the end of the year to celebrate a successful year.

Football

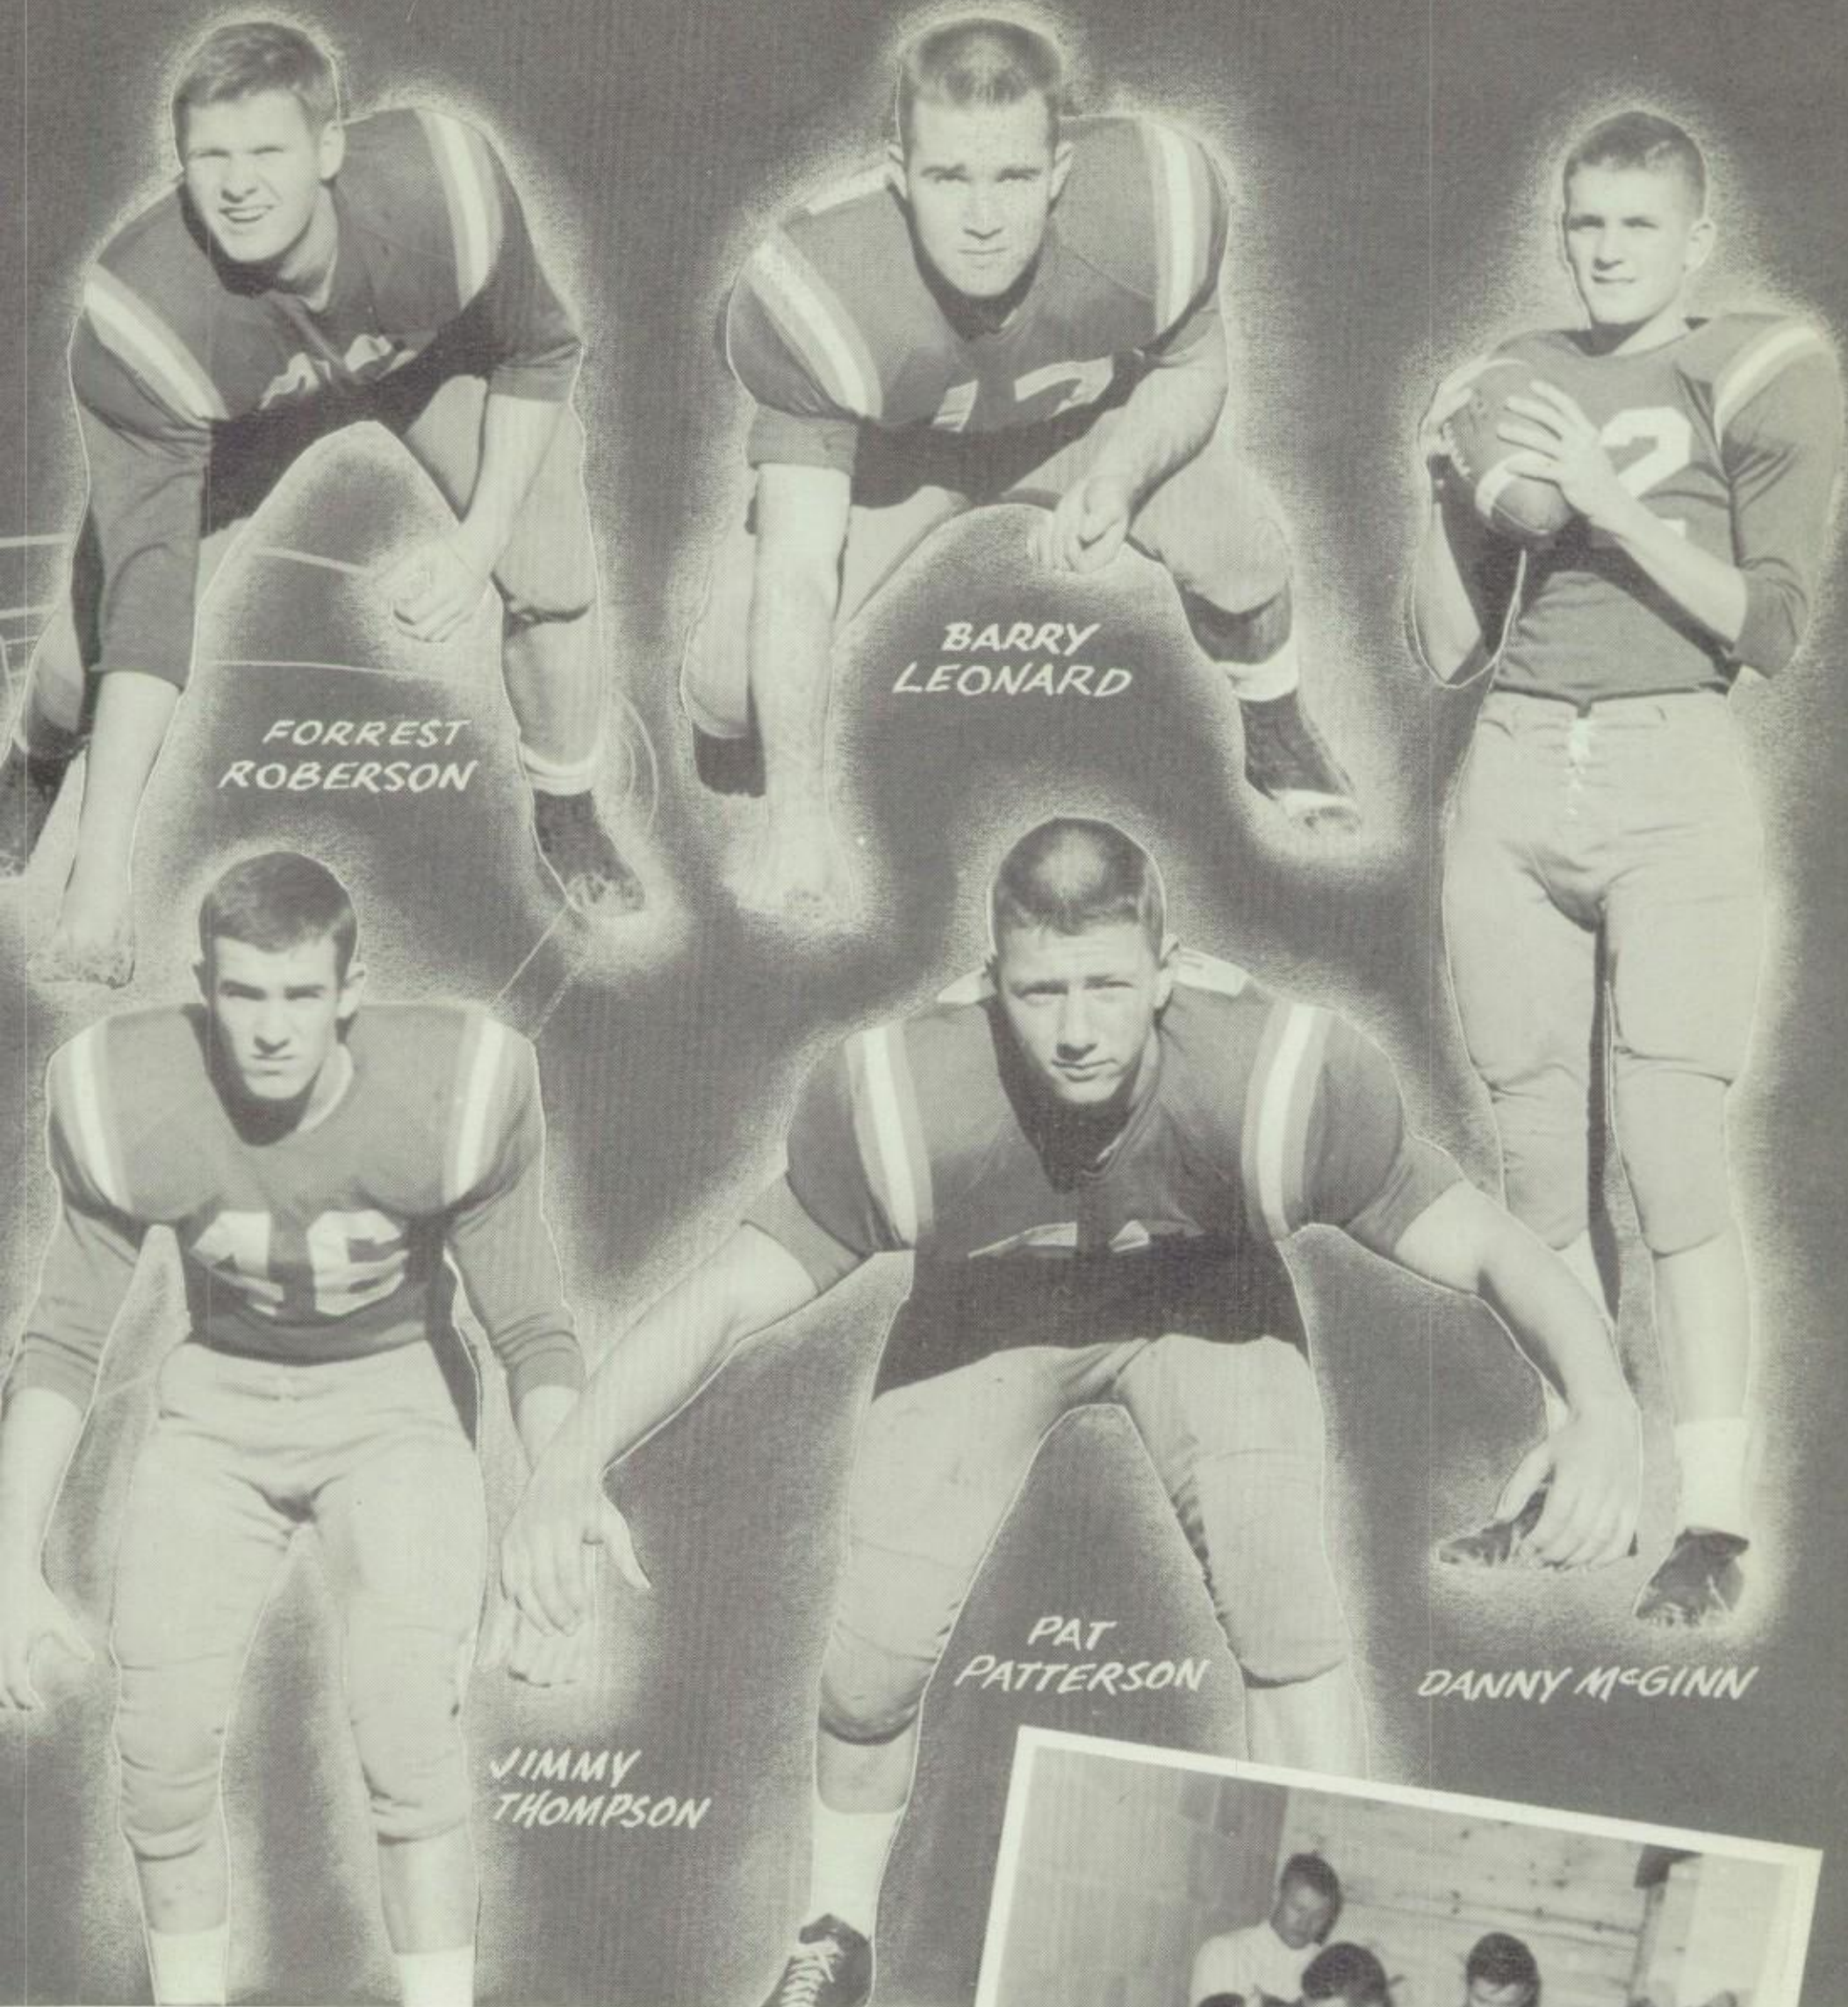

As the 1958 football season opened for Lexington High School, many new faces composed the starting lineup. The loss from the 1957 championship team was tremendous.

The chief worry of the coaches was the lack of size and experience in the line. The entire starting line from '57 graduated, but in the backfield it was a different story. Coach Bowen's boys were loaded with talent. The 1958 starting backfield was probably the finest in the state.

As the season progressed so did the Jackets. The line gained experience and the backfield lived up to all expectations. As the season closed, we had a 7-3 record, with losses to highly rated Salisbury, Albemarle, and conference champions, Asheboro. With a few more breaks, all three of the losses could have been victories. The spirit and determination of the 1958 football squad was wonderful. They never let up, but fought all the way.

Nineteen hundred and fifty eight was the last year Lexington High School's athletic teams will participate in AA competition. In 1959 the Jackets will be in the new AAAA conference. The sport's staff wishes for the Jackets a great future and the conference championship in '59.

Two bits, four bits—This is a familiar chant of the hard working cheerleaders arousing school spirit before games. Keeping the school spirit at it's peak all of the time is really difficult. The '58-'59 cheerleaders have done a wonderful job.

The cheerleaders led the way for the best homecoming week in years as well as leading our teams on to their many victories. Many long hours after school, learning and perfecting new yells have molded the cheerleaders into a precision group that everyone appreciates. Regardless of the outcome of games, the cheerleaders are always staunch supporters of the Yellow Jackets. Congratulations on a job well done.

Boys' Basketball

As football season drew to a close, basketball became king in the sports' world. For the Jackets, no one knew quite what to expect. The loss from the '57 team was great. Only three lettermen returned from last year.

The height of the team was the shortest in several years, but the spirit was not lacking. Harry Thomason, one of the few returning lettermen, was elected captain of the team. Backed by Terrell West, Danny McGinn, and Roy Holman, these boys were the nucleus of the squad. Sophomores Bill Hilton and Donnie Leonard gained much valuable experience as the season progressed.

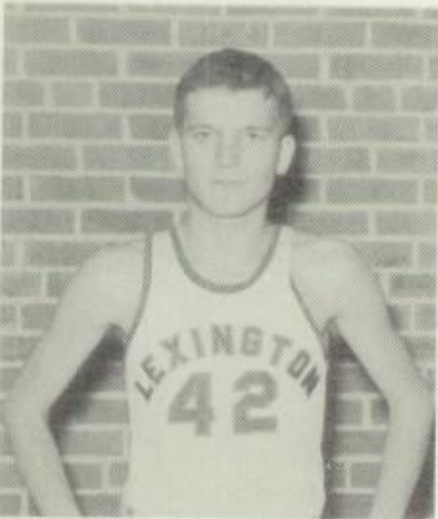

The opening game matched the Jackets with highly rated R. J. Reynolds of Winston-Salem. Reynolds edged the Jackets, but the performance of the boys was considered excellent.

Under the capable guidance of Jack Williams, the team progressed greatly. The '58 team was a young team but gained valuable experience which will be needed next year in the new AAAA Conference.

This will be the last year of girls' basketball. The team will be discontinued next year because of Lexington's moving into the new AAAA Conference. We are sorry to see it go.

The 1959 basketball season brought to an end one of the most enjoyed sports in Lexington High School—girls basketball. Through the years the girls teams have given us some wonderful entertainment and have brought many honors to our school. As we will enter into AAAA competition next year, we will no longer have a girls' squad. The LEXICON staff wishes to say "thanks" for the many exciting games you girls have given us, and we only wish it could continue.

Aiming for the top spot, the baseballers start work in the early part of the year to sharpen up their skills. With six returning lettermen and such stars as fireballer, Danny McGinn, and infielders, Harry Thomason and "Jitter" Yarbrough, the boys should be ready.

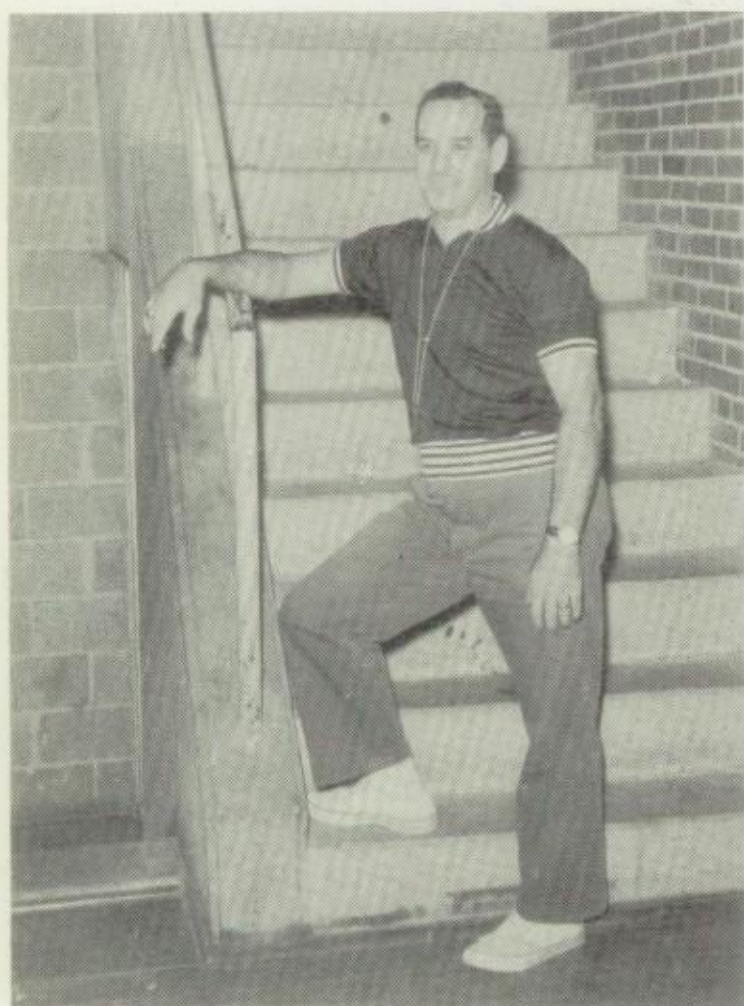

Coach V. G. Price, Jr., keeps the boys working hard so that they stay in good condition. Compiling only a 5-9 record last year, the boys will be working harder than ever during the '59 season. The LEXICON staff wishes a very rewarding season to a very capable group.

Track

The loss from the 1958 track team was great with jumper Bill Lopp and 880 runner Charles Hamilton both graduated. However, the 1958 season gave experience to many new faces.

David Lopp, a superb dash man, should be in good shape. Junior Webster, a sophomore dash man, will return. Robin Deese, the miler, returns also. Raymond Smith, Jimmy Thompson, and a host of others will be valuable point-gainers.

The success of a track team depends chiefly upon the desire of each boy to win. Perfect condition is required of each boy if he expects to be a winner. To achieve this condition, hard work and practice are required by the boys and the coach. Coach Bowen does a wonderful job training these boys and deserves much credit for his diligence.

We are very sure the 1959 edition of the track team will bring many medals to Lexington Senior High School.

Golf

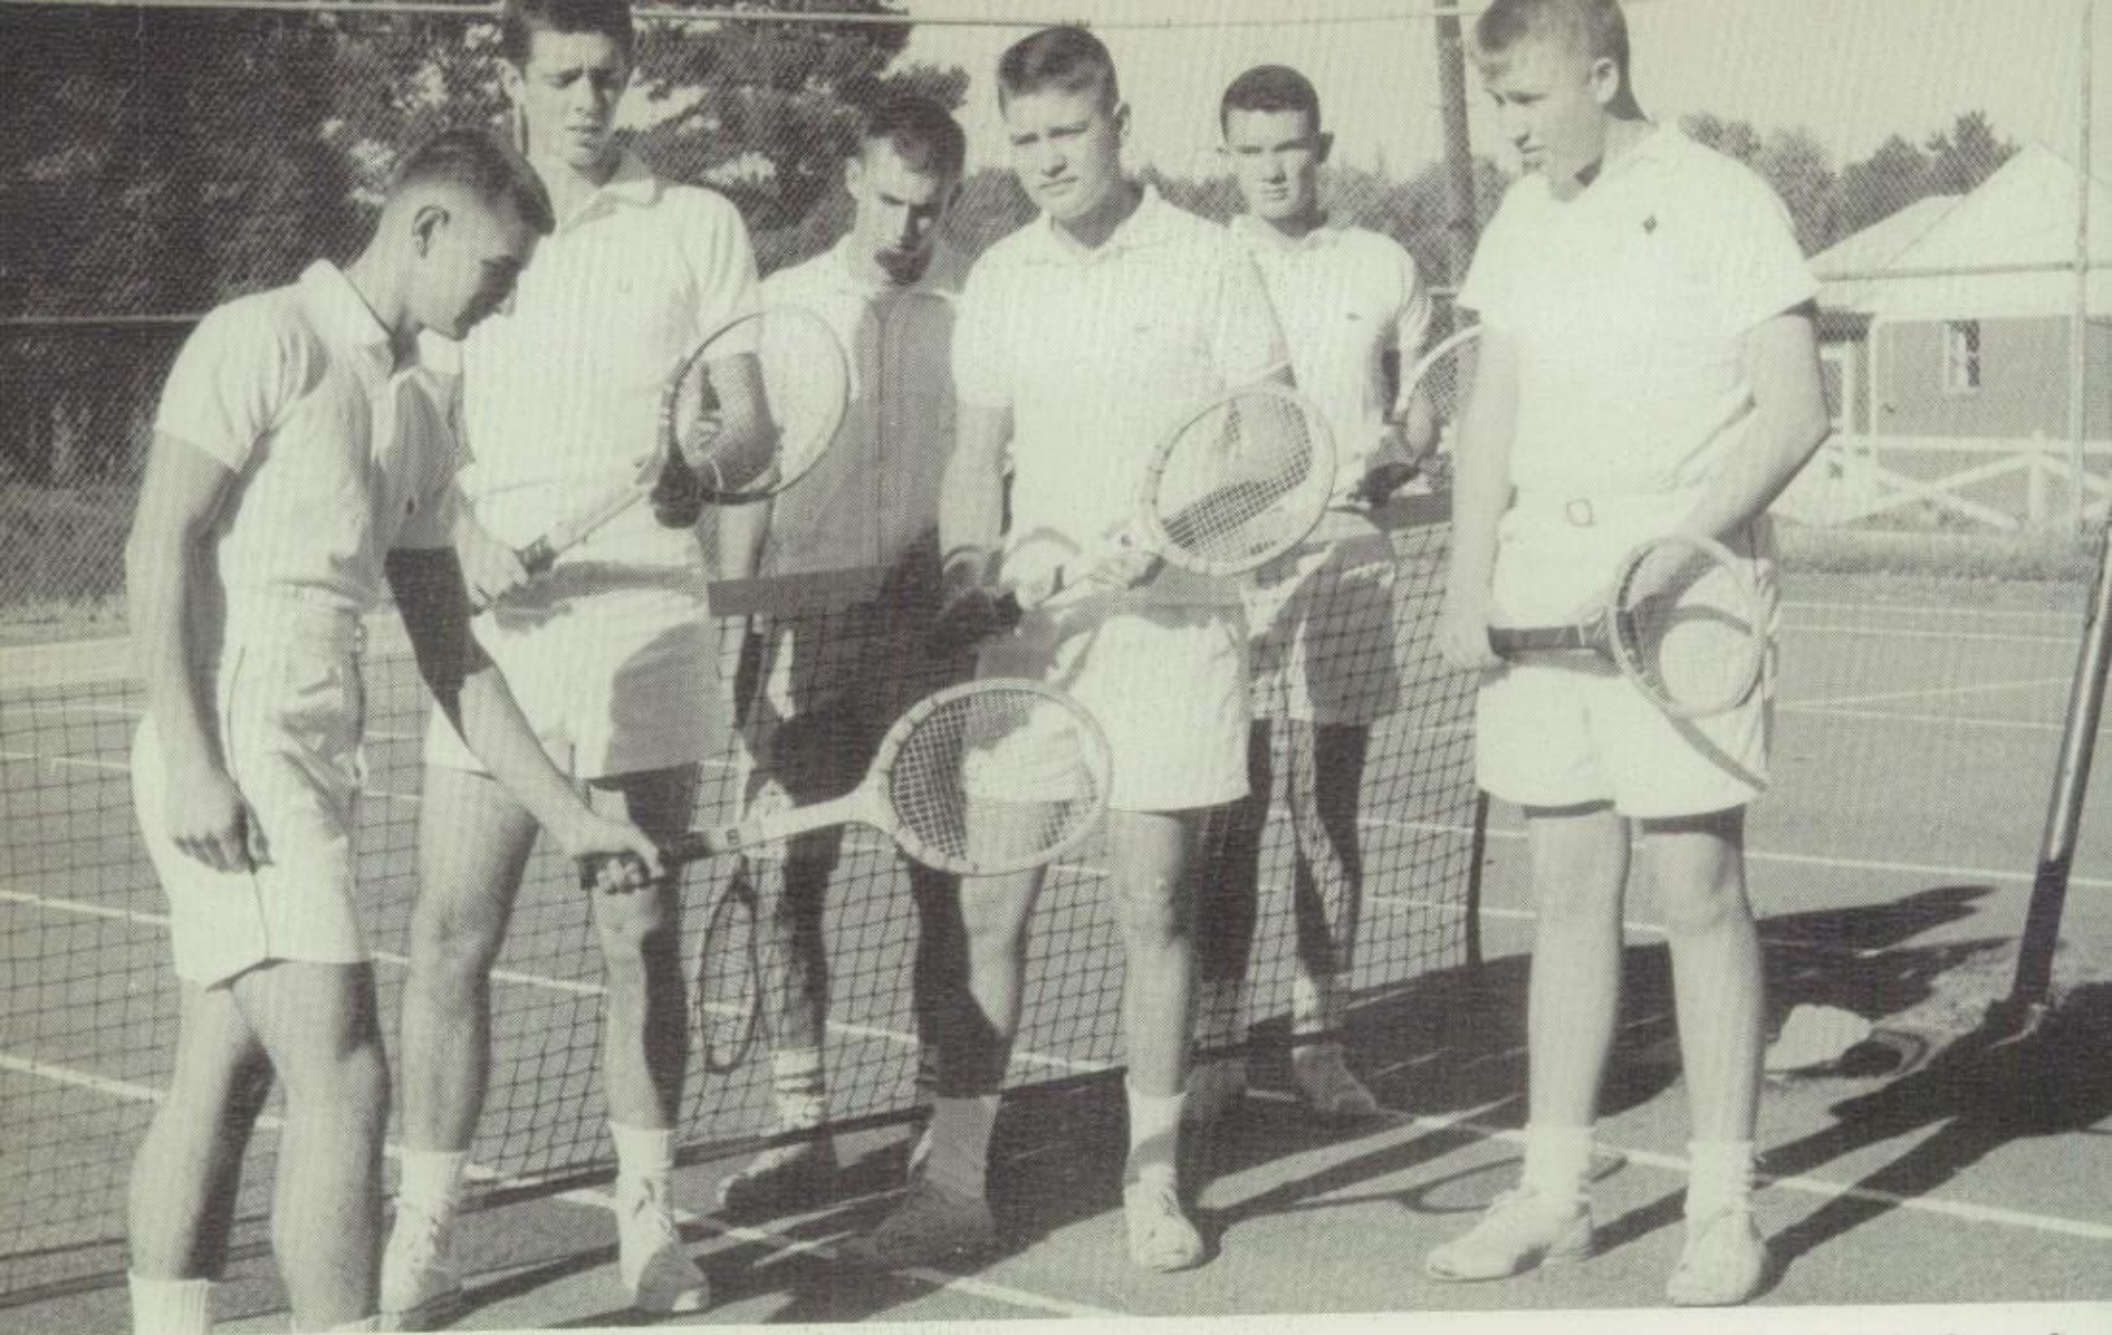

Reigning as conference champions, the 1959 team hopes to live up to their 1958 record. Last spring the golf team won the conference tournament by a large margin.

Only one member of the '58 squad graduated, Captain Jakie Lohr. Five lettermen return for the '59 season. Donnie Hedrick, a sophomore who won the North Carolina Junior Crown last summer, should be the number one man; senior Eddie Gray, a three year letterman who hits the ball well, is returning also; sophomore lettermen Bill Zackary and Ricky Hooker, and three year letterman Craig Redwine should give the team support.

To fill the other vacancy, there are several freshman potentials. Guy Smith, a little boy who can really hit the ball well, should give the returning lettermen plenty of competition. Victor Frietag could also land a spot on the team.

The experience of the '59 squad should prove beneficial in their hopes of winning the championship for the second year in a row.

Boys' Tennis

As warm weather and spring roll around, tennis comes into the spotlight. The 1959 tennis team for Lexington High will be chiefly composed of veterans. Captain Fred Lopp will again lead the team. Senior Bob Griffith should hold the number one or two spot behind Lopp. Juniors Ken Lambeth, Bill Hilton, and Eddie Lanier all have the much needed experience which composes a championship team. Non-letterman Eddie Smith could possibly fill one of the gaps in the starting six. Ben Johnson, a Senior and a letterman, should be right near the top, possibly number one.

The team as a whole is loaded with talent. All have experience, speed, and most important of all, determination. Just what to expect from these boys, no one knows; but the Sport's Staff sees a championship for the 1959 netmen.

Girls' Tennis

Being only one year old, the girls' tennis team has caught on fast. The girls played only one match, which they won. The team hopes to compile an amicable record this year. Mrs. Cook has done a swell job in coaching the young lassies. The losses of such stars as Sara Nan Beck and Theresa Rimer may be felt considerably. Jerry Ann Beck, Kathy Phillips, Ginger White, and Margaret Berry will be returning to net more victories and possibly a championship. The girls have taken the game to heart and have shown much enthusiasm. They will surely come through for L.S.H.S. The entire LEXICON staff wishes the girls' tennis team much luck and success in all of the coming seasons.

The Gala Ball

A festive occasion, highlighted by the crowning of King Ronnie Michael and Queen Linda Lohr, was the masquerade ball presented by the Tri-Hi-Y and their escorts. Under colored lights the couples danced amidst the confetti and balloons, which gave a gay air to the occasion. Entertainment was rendered the royal couple and their court by talented students.

HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

Pep rally in stadium . . . cheerleaders and band with spirited yells and music. Pep assembly with crowning of 1958 Homecoming Queen. Classes and clubs planning and working on clever floats. Parade . . . band . . . sponsors . . . floats. Victorious game . . . happy students and alumni. Dance at Country Club.

So many things, large and small, go into the production of an annual—days and nights spent taking pictures, planning layouts, drawing up dummy sheets, writing copy, typing, proofreading, and numbers of other things. As we write these final words, we want to thank everyone who gave unceasingly of their time and efforts to complete the 1959 LEXICON.

First we would like to thank Miss Charlotte Matthews, advisor of the Literary Staff, and Miss Janie Manning, advisor of the Business Staff, for their patient guidance and valuable suggestions. We are grateful to Mr. Wike, Mrs. Padgett, and all the members of the faculty for their consideration and willing co-operation.

We wish to express our appreciation also to each individual on both the Literary and Business staffs. Without the long hours of hard work spent by these students, this twenty-first edition of the LEXICON would not have been possible. The Senior Class Editor, Becky Lou Everhart, along with James Young, Class Editor, and his assistants, Kitty Bernhardt and "Sister" Burke, are responsible for a wonderful class section. Becky Shillinglaw, Club Editor, and her assistant, Rhonda Morgan, successfully accomplished the difficult task of producing their section. Sports Editor, Craig Redwine, and Joe Gann, his assistant, did an excellent job on a section which requires much time and patience. Sherry Clodfelter, as Feature Editor, did a fine job of presenting two of the most festive events of our school. Mildred Davis was our capable typist. The ability of our photographer, Tommy Dickerson, was a great asset to the staff.

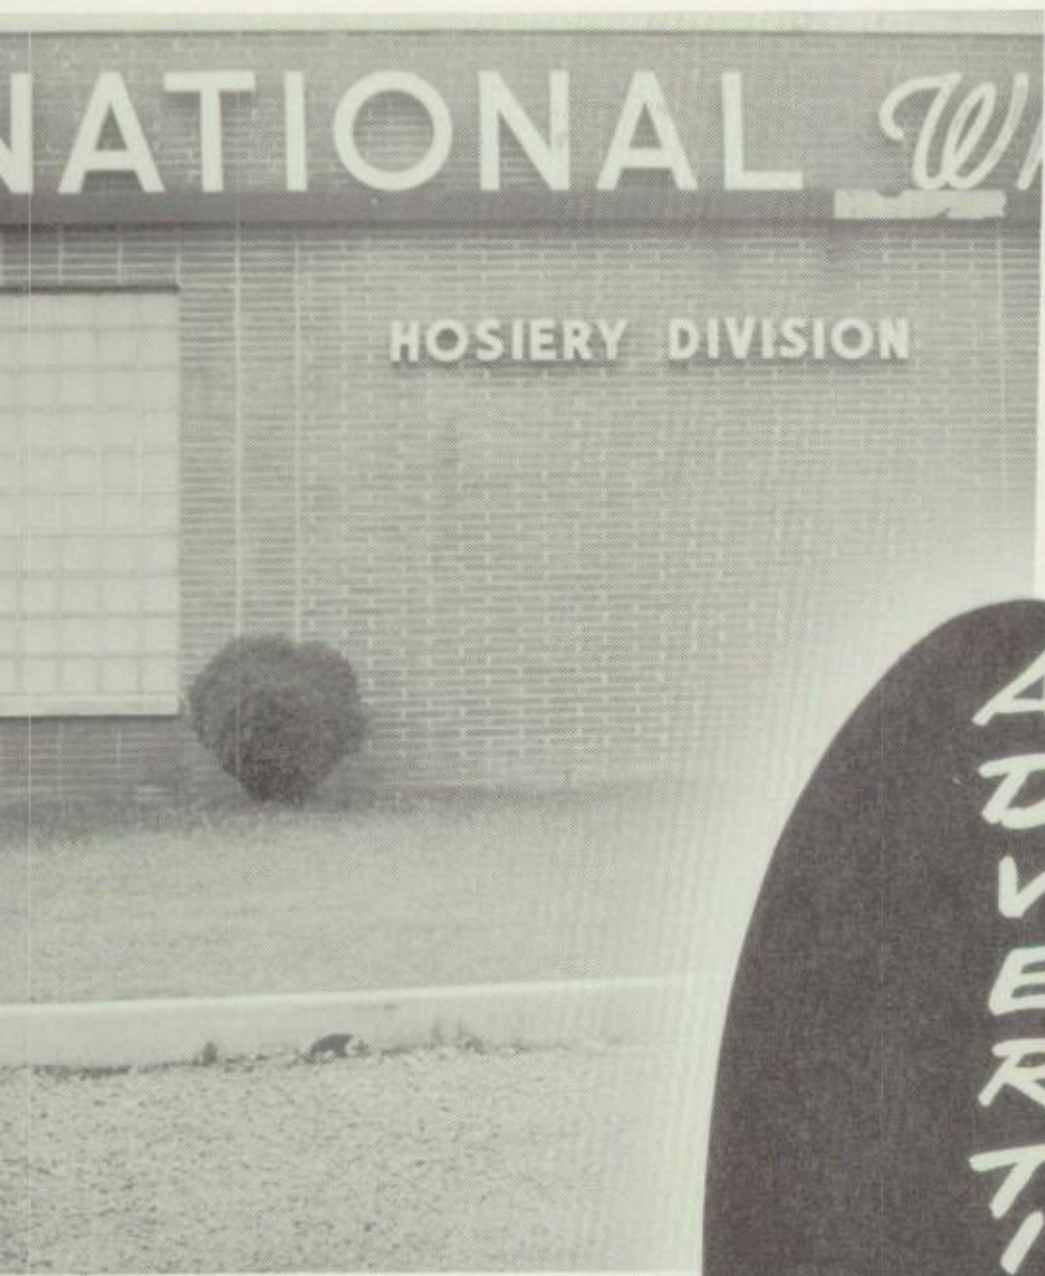

The Business Staff this year spent a great amount of time and energy in soliciting advertisements. We would like to thank Fred Lopp, Martha Greer, Kenneth Lambeth, Gloria Dunn, Martha Yount, and Gerald Briggs for their efforts towards making this a most successful year. Mary Hunt is due much credit for her efficient work as bookkeeper.

To Mr. Joe Phelps and Edwards & Broughton Company of Raleigh, we express our gratitude for their interest and valuable help in publishing this annual. School Pictures, Incorporated, is responsible for the excellent pictures in the class section, and Jakie Koonts of The Dispatch and Mr. Bill Choate provided many of the group pictures used.

Finally, our most hearty thanks goes out to each student who so willingly assisted in the production of this book. It is only with the interest and support of the students that a staff can produce a successful annual.

Sincerely,

BARBARA AND DOTTIE
Editor and Business Manager
